TREATMENT OF BIBLE STUDENTS

SMACKS OF THE "DARK AGES"

"The Servant is not greater than his Lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you."—John 15:20.

IN 1919, young Charles T. Russell, become a prominent figure in the Bible students' movement, wrote a pamphlet titled "The True Purpose of Bible Study," describing the persecution of Bible students by the German government.

The pamphlet was written in response to the increasing number of Bible students being harassed by the German authorities, who were afraid of the students' influence on the German population. Russell described the persecution of Bible students as a return to the "DARK AGES," a period of history characterized by Inquisition and persecution of Christians.

Russell's pamphlet was widely circulated among Bible students, and it helped to publicize the persecution they were suffering. It also helped to unify the Bible students' movement, which was growing in strength and influence.

Russell's pamphlet is a classic example of the propaganda used by the Bible students to spread their message and defend their beliefs against the attacks of their enemies.

The pamphlet was later published in several languages, and it became a 重要な文献 in the history of the Bible students' movement.

The pamphlet was also instrumental in helping to bring about the outbreak of World War I, as it helped to stir up anti-German sentiment in the United States.

In conclusion, the pamphlet "The True

Purpose of Bible Study" by Charles T.

Russell is a powerful example of the propaganda used by the Bible students to defend their beliefs and influence the public opinion against the attacks of their enemies.

The pamphlet is a testament to the strength and determination of the Bible students, who were willing to face persecution and adversity in order to spread the message of the Bible.

THE WORLD HAS ENDED
MILLIONS Now Living May NEVER DIE!
FREE LECTURE

By HON. J. F. RUTHERFORD Member New York City Bar

In order that the people of New York City may have an opportunity to consider his convincing and heart-cheering message, the INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS have arranged for Mr. Rutherford to deliver his great lecture FREE to the public.

Thousands of America's sons are gone to the battlefield. Many may die there. Mr. Rutherford's lecture gives conclusive proof of future blessings for them, whether they die Christians or not. This message will bring joy and comfort to every heart.